

Home Learning

You may hate the idea of getting home from school and having to pull out those books again when all you want to do is relax, go out with your mates or settle yourself in front of the computer or the television. BUT..... believe us when we say that completing your home learning is important and IT JUST HAS TO BE DONE.

We know that spending a REASONABLE AMOUNT OF TIME on home learning and making sure that it is done TO THE BEST OF YOUR ABILITY on a REGULAR BASIS will lead to:

- Improved understanding of what you do in class
- Improved marks and grades – remember those all-important GCSEs at the end of Year 11
- Improved ability to plan your time, work to deadlines and be an independent learner

And all of the above will mean..... more chances of getting a fantastic career when you leave school!

To help you plan your time effectively, follow the timetable below.
